Emmet's talents have been recognized both home and abroad. He has enjoyed success as a multiple prize winner in various competitions across Ireland, the RIAM 'Promising young singer of 2010', the 'John McCormack Young Tenor Award', as well as being voted 'Tenor of the year' in 2013 by The Irish Music Association in the United States in recognition of his performances on stage. He also performed in stage productions at The National Concert Hall as well as The Gaeity Theatre, Dublin.

Celtic Thunder principal singer and Ireland's most exciting young tenor Emmet Cahill embarks on his nationwide 2017 US tour. Emmet is launching his debut Irish orchestral album, having recently been signed on a major recording deal with Sony Music USA. This will be an unforgettable concert of Irish songs and stories, and an exclusive opportunity to hear the music from Emmet's debut solo album. Be sure not to miss an unforgettable evening of songs and tales from the emerald isle, that will no doubt bring back many happy memories, and create moments to cherish.
