Next Meeting – Tuesday October 10, 2017 7:00 p.m. St. Paul's Church

President's Message:

Hello my Hibernian Bothers! Just back from the Virginia State Convention held at Virginia Beach. Congratulations to brother Brian Kiernan for being elected to State Secretary. The Donnybrooks played and the James H. Dooley Division represented the most enthusiastic members in the audience. If they gave out a spirit award we would have gotten it! Thanks to all who attended and especially all of those involved in the planning of this annual event.

Dr. Ruan O'Donnell accepted an AOH invitation to be the keynote speaker at the convention during our meeting. He was brilliant. Dr. O'Donnell is the senior Lecturer in History at the University of Limerick. Just to mention one of his books, he is Co-General Editor of the ground breaking '16 Lives' publication series which re-examined the political contribution of the sixteen men executed for the involvement in the Easter Rising.

I was happy to see some of the gang for our annual halfway to Saint Patrick's Day at Rare Olde Times. Doesn't the renovation there look great?

Looking ahead to the Central Virginia Celtic Festival and Highland Games held on October 28th and 29th. This event kickoffs the selling of 2018 Dooley Division's "Trip for Two to Ireland" raffle sales and recruitment of new members. This two-day event will require volunteers to help man the tent and sell raffle tickets.

We'll be collecting donations and money for the Pregnancy Resource Center at the Christmas Party on December 10 and at our monthly meeting on December 12. Make checks out to PRC of Metro Richmond to make a monetary donation. Items that they need include: Baby gowns and shoes, bottles, diapers (size 1 and 5), baby towels and washcloths and baby toiletries. Only new items can be donated. For more information and a full list of items contact the Dooley Division Pro-Life Chairman Mike Smith.

Legend of Finn McCool

Contributed by Brian Hegarty

The giant Finn McCool (anglicized version of his Irish name Fionn Mac Cumhaill) was 54 foot tall who built what we know as the Giant's Causeway. Finn is the leader of a band of warriors called the Fianna in Irish stories that may date as far back as the third Century A.D.

Finn lived happily on the Antrim coast with his wife Oonagh until he discovered he had a rival in Scotland known as Benandonner. Finn was frequently taunted by Benandonner from afar and on one occasion Finn scooped up a clod of earth and hurled it across the sea at him but missed. The huge clod of earth landed in the middle of the Irish Sea making the Isle of Man and the depression formed from scooping up the earth filled up with water to become Lough Neagh.

Finn finally challenged Benandonner to a proper fight and decided to build a causeway of enormous stepping stones across the sea to Scotland, so he could walk across without getting his feet wet. But as he approached and caught sight of the great bulk of Benandonner, Finn became afraid and fled back home, with Benandonner hot on his trail. In his haste as he ran, Finn lost one of his great boots and today it can be seen sitting on the foreshore in Port Noffer where it fell to the ground.

When Finn arrived at his house, he asks his wife Oonagh to help him hide as Benandonner is not too far behind. Clever Oonagh thinks fast and disguises Finn as a baby and pushed him into a big cradle. When Benandonner saw the size of the sleeping child, he assumed the father must be GIGANTIC. Benandonner fled home in terror, ripping the Causeway as he went in case he was followed.
